- In celebration of Valentine's Day coming up on Friday, Anne Walker led us in singing, "Five Foot Two, Eyes of Blue." She also passed out free homemade chocolate-dipped caramels to anyone who could sing a refrain of the love song. George Eidson took away the most with two refrains.

• Fine Session

Fine Master Lana Archer chose the human heart for a quiz subject today in honor of Valentine's Day. We learned a lot about our hearts : the human heart beats 2.5 billion times in the course of a lifetime; a woman's heart beats faster than a man's; the average human heart weighs less than a pound!

Special Fines and Happy Dollars

- Lana Archer fined herself for misspeaking in her announce: she is collecting "youth" underwear, not "used" underwear!

• Birthdays and Anniversaries

(No birthdays or anniversaries this week.)

• Program

Dick McLaughlin introduced Shelley Lim, Head of the Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Department. Shelley came to us this morning to tell us about some of the programs available at the new A. J. Smith Community Center on N. Evans Street.

Nearly every day of the week there are programs going on at the center throughout the day for all ages and both sexes. There are several types of exercise classes that appeal to different groups, ranging from yoga for both adults and children to zumba classes at two different levels and a special exercise class for seniors. There are also numerous activities in which people can participate on a drop-in basis: indoor walking, pickle ball, basketball, volleyball, and others. CLICK HERE for a list of the times of the various sessions, or call 423-5602 for more information.

Besides the exercise possibilities, the A. J. Smith Center is host to a number of community events. In March they will host the Lenawee Home Builders' Show, the Communities in Schools "March Mingle" and a crafts show. For more information on March Mingle, CLICK HERE.
