• Guests

- No Guests today

• 50/50 Drawing

- Kelly Coffins number was drawn and she wasn't here? so it carries over another week. It pays to attend Kiwanis...

• Fine Session:

- Spencer Ruffner selected Presidential Libraries as today's fine topic. The first one was established in 1939 by FDR. There are 13 Presidential Libraries in existence today. NARA stands for "National Archives and Records Administration".

• Happy Dollars-

- Susan Gilmore paid a Happy dollar for successfully completing her year as our club President and a Happy dollar for her son's induction into the Adrian College Hall of Fame this past weekend.

- Spencer Ruffner paid a Happy dollar a successful Northeast Lenawee County Crop Walk on Sunday which raised nearly $2,000 dollars. He also thanked his wife for a wonderful pot of turkey soup and Beth Noden for bringing her dog Snoopy who was happily walked by his granddaughter Clara.
- Heather Masten paid a Happy dollar to announce a special event Bryan Masten is putting on at Cambrian October 23rd from 7-8 on social security financial planning.
- Spencer paid another Happy dollar for attending the Wacker Corporation Employee Open House that included entertainment (German band), Food, plant tour and Technical Center tour with plenty of activities for their three grand children that also attended on Saturday October 4.
- Doug Bird – paid a Happy Dollar for the serendipity of running into Tom and Jeanette Meyer on the Mackinaw Island Ferry this weekend.
- Wendy Brys –paid a Happy Dollar because she is going to Mackinaw Island this weekend..
- Anne Walker paid happy dollars, for the fun time at last Tuesday's Annual Awards banquet, for George's special singing of "Mairzy Doats" at the program and for having forgotten to bring in the fine pot from her car so our venerable Secretary Ken DeRemer had to use a cooking pan:p.

There we no birthdays and anniversaries to celebrate this week.

Announcements:

Susan Gilmore- Handed out various awards and plaque to members who weren't able to attend last week's Award Program (now that both the recipients and the awards were present).

Kiwanis Member of the Year – Heather Masten

Legion of Honor awards- Cal Tuttle for 25 years of service and Terry Lighthall for 35 years of service.

Distinguished Service –Doug Bird for his umpteen years of leadership and service at MIS

Perfect Attendance awards-John and Ruth Demming, and Doug Bird (39 years-WOW)

Thanks You for Committee Chairs- Lance Ness, Tom Meyer, and Doug Bird

Jody Howard's Announcements-

Clip Boards were circulated for –Updated Committee Assignments for 2014-15, Updated E-mail Addresses, and a sign-up sheet for weekly Invocations for 2014-15

Dick McLaughlin –turned in his resignation from the club last Tuesday morning. We bid him a fond "Adieu Kind Friend" and Jody asked for volunteers to help her look at ways to streamline the job of keeping our Webpage up-to-date and vital. Dick did a marvelous job for the last 16 years with his great technical savvy. There is new software available to help simplify this process for less naturally gifted volunteers.

"Thank You Notes- One from Stan and Bridget Ames for the clubs donation to the Girls State Scholarship Fund in memory of their daughter Brittany.

Appleumpkin Volunteers still needed- especially Sunday afternoon from 12-4 pm. Anne circulated the sign-up sheet and more slots were filled in. Anne will send out an e-mail with the list as of this morning.

Anne passed a flyer on a program that the Tecumseh FPC Creation Care Team is hosting on October 23rd –featuring the movie "The Last Call at the Oasis" and a panel who have been doing water testing/studies in south central Michigan since 2000.(Look for an e-mail from Anne with an attached flyer FYI)

Jody Howard- Three Main Goals for 2014-15- Theme "It isn't One Person's Answer or One Person's Job"

-The Club will continue the many successful projects were are currently doing and will be taking on new challenges.

-Kiwanis will be celebrating it's 100th birthday in January. Our club will be celebrating this on Jan 20th, with our District Governor joining us for breakfast.

Next Week's Prime Time Players-

Greeter's Heather and Bryan Masten
