• Announcements

Anne Walker thanked the Key Club, Monroe Bank and Trust ENLIST group who assisted both Saturday and all day on Sunday, Dillon Miller and 4 Aktion club members and Kiwanis members and their family members for their assistance at the booth. 1000's of people were at our booth and the kids really enjoy making scarecrows and mini-moos.

Sharon Hawley along with husband Kim handed out 3,400 Snapea Harvest treats during the weekend and will also hand them out to the 7th graders as they work at the Kiwanis Park on Thursday and to members of the HOPE Recreation center. 25 cents per bag will be given to Community In Schools of Tecumseh Area to help fund their Friday Food packs by Table For Two who provided the snacks for us to distribute.

John Bartrum notified us that there will be an interclub to Morenci, leaving at 11 AM on Wednesday.

Ron Wimple is all set for Travel and Adventure to the English Channel tonight. The program starts at 7:30 PM.

Wendy Brys circulated an Invocation sign up sheet. She also announced that she has a booklet of invocations for use, if needed.

Wendy Brys, as chair of Human and Spiritual Values Committee welcomes ideas from members.

- Doug Bird again circulated a Kiwanis Park sign up for Thursday October 15, working with 127 7th grade students who will be transporting invasive species brush up the hill for chipping. And for Friday October 16, working with 90 7th grade students, who will be taking the mulch and spreading it down the trail. Kiwanian's who sign up will act as supervisors. Time frame is 1:00 to 2:15 PM.
- Doug Bird announced there are numerous copies of the Travel and Adventure papers that may be taken and distributed throughout community businesses.

Cal Tuttle thanked the group for all of their help.. Time constraints are the reason he has resigned. As far as the flag project is concerned, Ron Musselman will take over building the flags, Brian Callaghan will handle the business end and maybe Ron Publiski will handle getting the sleeves placed. There is still more help needed.

- Next week will be Highschool Seniors of the Month.

• 50/50 Drawing

$42.00 or $22.00. Congratulations Carlton Cook our winner!!!

• Fine Session

Lance Ness as our finemaster ask us questions about Macon and Henry Ford their most famous resident.

He owned 9 farms and a summer home in the area. The reason he migrated to Macon was because he was interested in making plastic parts out of soy beans.

- At age 15, what did Henry Ford have a reputation for? Answer: Fixing watches
- In 1891 Ford of the head engineer working for _____? Answer: Thomas Edison
- When was the first Model T built? Answer: 1908
- When did the Model A get built? Answer: 1927
- Thomas Edison's father worked for Henry Ford for how much a day? Answer: $5.00

Special Fines and Happy Dollars

George Eidson had a $1 because his father worked for Henry Ford for $5 a day.

- Doug Bird for working with his chain saw and coming back unscathed. Thanks to Sharon Hawley for watching.

Brian Callaghan had a $1 for Cal Tuttle and all of the work he has done for Kiwanis.

Cal received a standing ovation.

Lana Archer paid $1 to thank Anne Walker for all of her work with the Scarecrow project.

- Anne Walker paid up to thank those who helped with Appleumpkin.
