Program

Lana introduced the speaker

Ellen Leigh Sadler of Ellen Leigh Interiors is a Mural Artist.

Ellen was educated in Fine Arts at Wayne State University receiving a degree in Interior Decorating - Commercial. She worked mainly in Medical and Dental offices. She taught classes in techniques and stenciling but really wanted to paint again. Friends asked her to paint in their homes.

She started her company in 1992 and began painting murals in 1997. She has worked from Port Huron to Detroit to Saline and Saugatuck, Grand Rapids and Cincinnati.

She and her husband moved to Tecumseh a year ago when he retired.

She is still working with clients in Detroit. If you can dream it, she can paint it! is her motto.

When asked how they ended up in Tecumseh she said it was the artist community and friendliness.

She got her first set of paints at the age of 10 but had painted well before that. It is possible to paint anything, anywhere.

Besides murals (which are put up like wallpaper) she does furniture and some charity work too. She paints house portraits, landscapes and windows for "windowless" offices!.

She has painted a mural at Catherine Cobb, may do one at the Market on Evans next year and is currently working on a 39 foot wide, 12 foot tall mural in a factory.

She may be teaching at the TCA or CATS. She paints with acrylics. Her website is www.ellenleigh.com.
