Fine Session

The Fine session was a singing session with Ear Candy but don't think most of us should quit our day jobs for singing careers

Special Fines and Happy Dollars

Spencer Ruffner - Is leaving Friday Morning on a flight to Missoula International Airport for a 10 day back-packing vacation in the area of Glacier National Park

Mark Tommelein - for new grandchild coming soon and because Mary will be returning home today.

Program

Musical program presented by Ear Candy, a local singing group who have been together for 5 years. There are 3 singers and an accompanist, Joyce Collins, Wynne Marsh, Stephanie Jass and Margaret Hyle.

The group supports the Lenawee Humane Society and asked that proceeds from a collection at the meeting be donated to the Society in payment for their performance.

Some of the selections we enjoyed were: opening our meeting with a wonderful version of the Star Spangled Banner and then for the program they sang some World War II songs including Chattanooga Train, Bugle Boy, and a medley of songs about girls that need to cry or not. If you are interested in contacting Ear Candy (Sweet sounds for the soul with four finely-tuned women) call 517-920-2522 or EarCandySings.weebly.com, EarCandySings@gmail.com and facebook.com/EarCandySings.
