Program

Pat Deere "Bringing Hope, Healing and Happiness.

Relationship Marketing

Pat is involved in many organizations.

People are more likely to keep a picture of an event or a special birthday card and will remember to contact you in the future.

 Build relationships with people.
 First impression: Christmas card, Birthday card, send a card with a picture of something that the person likes and include your contact information / request for quotation etc..
 Employee recognition is very important. She made a special point to send a thank you card to an employee that always submitted their time sheets on time. This made the payrole and office work run smoothly.

Pat provided a questionnaire for each person on the tables and the questionnaires were collected at the end of the session.
